

A SALUTE
TO THE WALLY

Sunday July 19, 2009
4:30 - 7:30

Dramatically set on Silver Maple Island in the Middle of the Mohican River,
2 knots down-stream from the Swinging Bridge.

COST : $8 per adult
All kids are free

CONTACTS

(740) 599-6741 for detailed flyer
(800) 228-5118 for dinner reservations

Mohican Wilderness/Kenhurst Valley
22462 Wally Road Scenic Byway
Glenmont, OH 44628

SALUTE TO THE WALLY

“HIGHLIGHTS OF THE EVENING”

HISTORY OF THE WALLY

Formation and Early Years - Jim Sharpe, curator of Loudonville Museum

Life in the Valley and the Railroad's demise - David Greer, local historian and teacher

Railroading in the Country in that Era - Ken Hammontree, re-enactor and Master of Ceremonies

MUSIC OF THE PERIOD - 1892 to 1942

Mike Petee's ELIXIR from Mt. Vernon

(Mike will release for the first time his new song about the Wally)

Ann and Phil Case from Centerville, Ohio

EVENING DINNER

By Andy Miller of Mohican River Inn - Delivered hot or cold

By advance reservation only or bring your own picnic basket

INSPECTION OF REPLICA RAILROAD STATION

Built on siding capable of handling over 100 cars

VIEWING THE WALLY PICTURE COLLECTION

Some dramatic and some not seen for several decades!

A 2-MILE “TRAIN” RIDE

Up and down Kenhurst Valley, the old road bed now serves as the valley's
“Le Grande Allee”, growing more impressive every year.

NOTES:

All kids are admitted free at “ The Salute”

A supervised recreation program for kids will leave you free to enjoy the adult program

Bring lawn chairs for greater comfort

A foot bridge will take you safely to the island.
Canoes are available if you prefer

Refreshments thru-out the 3-hour program will be served by Boy and Girl Scouts of the 12 troops we sponsor/co-sponsor.

This will probably be your last chance to pay tribute to the Wally Railroad before eye-witnesses die off, and memories fade.